► KK Modi Group rejigs top deck

The diversified K K Modi Group has set up a family council and a corporate group centre with the aim of streamlining management and reaching a turnover of $5 billion in five years. Based out of New Delhi, the family council will be chaired by Bina Modi and will also take over as the managing trustee of the family when chairman K K Modi is no more actively involved. The corporate group centre will be headed by former IndianOil chairman Sarthak Behuria, who will take up the responsibility of group president.
